

Lyric soprano, Daniela Di Pasquale, for the past 2 years she has been performing in concerts as a special guest vocalist with two-time Emmy nominated tenor, Alfio. Just finished the concert event “Magic and Mayhem” with The Cantanti Project, and in February will be featured in their production of “Euridice” by Caccini. This June she performed with The Lighthouse Opera Company as Zerlina in Don Giovanni. This July, she performed with Carol Yahr’s NYC Summer Scenes Program as Despina in Così fan tutte. Previously she performed the role of Virtu in

L’incoronazione di Poppea with the NYC Lyric Opera. Other main stage and workshop productions include Ciesca in Gianni Schicchi, Regina in Regina, Susanna in Le Nozze di Figaro, First nun in Dialogues of the Carmelites, Nanetta in Falstaff, and Blanche in Dialogues of the Carmelites. In addition as an active recitalist, Ms. Di Pasquale performing in solo recitals in Italy near Milan, and Lake Como. Ms. Di Pasquale, studied at the Eastman School of Music and received a Bachelor of Music Degree with a concentration in Vocal performance at Montclair State University.